

TITLE 5: ELIGIBILITY REGULATIONS

(Note: Per Section 18077, these regulations apply to all CDD contracting agencies, unless otherwise noted.)
Effective: September 15, 2007 (e.g. – these are the “law”).

CDD Implementation Date: Unknown

Old Regulations

Subchapter 3 General Child Care Programs

Article I. General Provisions

18078. Definitions

For the purposes of this chapter, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) “Adjusted monthly income” means total countable income minus verified child support payments paid by the parent whose child is receiving child development services. Except for child support payments paid by the parent, monthly income shall not be adjusted because of voluntary or involuntary deductions. When income fluctuations occur, the adjusted monthly income shall be computed by averaging the total adjusted income received during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the month in which the application for services is signed.

18084. Documentation of Total Countable Income

New Regulations

18083. [No changes in new Eligibility or Need Regulations.]

18084. Documentation of Income Eligibility

The parent is responsible for providing documentation of the family's total countable income and the contractor is required to verify the information, as described below:

Old Regulations

18084. Documentation of Total Countable Income

(a) Unless that basis of need and eligibility as specified in Education Code Section 8263(a)(1) and (a)(2) is child protective services, the parent(s) shall provide copies of his or her most recent check stub(s) or the contractor shall record the following information on the application for services when viewing the most recent check stub(s):

- (1) Date of the check(s);
- (2) Amount(s) of the gross pay specified on the check stub;
- (3) The period(s) covered by the check.

(b) If the parent is self-employed, he/she may provide other documentation of income such as a letter from the source of the income or copies of tax returns or statements of estimated income for tax purposes;

New Regulations

18084. Documentation of Income Eligibility

(a) The parent(s) shall document total countable income for all the individuals counted in the family size as follows:

(1) If the parent is employed, provided:

(A) A release authorizing the contractor to contact the employer(s), to the extent known, that includes the employer's name, address, telephone number, and usual business hours, and

(B) All payroll check stubs, a letter from the employer, or other record of wages issued by the employer for the month preceding the initial certification, an update of the application, or the certification that establishes eligibility for services.

(2) When the employer refuses or fails to provide requested documentation or when a request for documentation would adversely affect the parent's employment, provide other means of verification that may include a list of clients and amounts paid, the most recently signed and completed tax returns, quarterly estimated tax statements, or other records of income to support the reported income, along with a self-certification of income.

(3) If the parent is self-employed, provide a combination of documentation necessary to establish current income eligibility for at least the month preceding the initial certification, an update of the application, or the recertification that establishes eligibility for services. Documentation shall consist of as many of the following types of documentation as necessary to determine income:

(A) A letter from the source of the income.

(B) A copy of the most recently signed and completed tax returns with a statement of current estimated income for tax purposes, or

(C) Other business records, such as ledgers, receipts, or business logs.

(4) Provide copies of the documentation of all non-wage income pursuant to section 18078 (q), self-certification of any income for which no documentation is possible, and any verified child support payments pursuant to section 18078(a) of this chapter.

(b) The contractor:

(1) Shall retain copies of the documentation of total countable income and adjusted monthly income in the family data file.

Old Regulations

18084. Documentation of Total Countable Income

(c) The basic data file shall contain documentation as specified in subsections (a) and (b) above for other income the family has received that is not excluded by Section 18078(l) of this Division.

New Regulations

(2) When the parent is employed, shall, as applicable, verify the parent's salary/wage; rate(s) of pay; potential for overtime, tips or additional compensation; hours and days of work; variability of hours and days of work; pay periods and frequency of pay, start date for the employee. If the employer refuses or is non-responsive in providing requested information or a request for employer documentation would adversely affect the parent's employment, and if the information provided pursuant to subdivision (a)(3) is inconsistent with the contractor's knowledge or community practice, shall request clarification in the self-certification of income, additional income information or a reasonable basis for concluding that the employer exists.

(3) When the parent is self-employed shall obtain and make a record of independent verification regarding the cost for services provided by the parent that may be obtained by contacting clients, reviewing bank statements, or confirming the information in the parent's advertisements or Web site. If the income cannot be independently verified, the contractor shall assess whether the reported income is reasonable or consistent with the community practice for this employment.

(4) May request additional documentation to verify total countable income to the extent that the information provided by the parent or the employer is insufficient to make a reasonable assessment of income eligibility.

(5) To establish eligibility, shall, by signing the application for services, certify to the contractor's reasonable belief that the income documentation obtained and, if applicable, the self-certification, support the reported income, are reliable and are consistent with all other family information and the contractor's knowledge, if applicable, of this type of employment or employer.

(c) If the family is receiving child care and development services because the child(ren) is/are at risk of abuse, neglect, or exploitation or receiving child protective services, and the written referral required by sections 18081(b)(8) and (b)(9) specifies that it is necessary to exempt the family from paying a fee, then the parent will not be required to provide documentation of total countable income.

Old Regulations

18084. Documentation of Total Countable Income

(d) If the parent does not have documentation of his/her income, he/she may make a declaration of the amount of income.

Note: Authority cited: Sections 8261 and 8263 Education Code. Reference: Sections 8261 and 8263, Education Code.

18085. Documentation of Public Assistance

If the basis of eligibility as specified in Education Code Section 8263(a)(1) is current aid recipient, the contractor shall document that a family is receiving public assistance by recording the family's Medi-Cal number on the application.

NOTE: Authority cited: Sections 8261 and 8263, Education Code. Reference: Sections 8261 and 8263, Education Code

18089. Documentation of the Child's Special Needs

If the basis of need as specified in Education Code Section 8263(a)(2) is the child's medical or psychiatric special need, including those exceptional needs specified in Education Code Section 8208(1), which cannot be met without the provision of child care and development services, the basic data file shall contain documentation of that special need from a legally qualified professional. The documentation of special need shall include:

(a) A description of the nature of the child's special need and the special services required to meet the child's special need;

(b) The problem duration of the child's special need;

18085. Documentation of Public Assistance

If the basis of eligibility as specified in Education Code section 8263(a)(1) is a current aid recipient, the parent shall provide documentation of public cash assistance, unless the contractor has and elects to use other means of obtaining verification.

NOTE: Authority cited: 8261 and 8263, Education Code. Reference: Sections 8261 and 8263, Education Code.

18089. Documentation of the Child's Exceptional Needs

The family data file shall contain documentation of the child's exceptional needs if the contractor is claiming adjustment factors pursuant to Education Code section 8265.5(b)(4) or (b)(5), the child with exceptional needs is 13 through 21 years of age, or the contractor is operating a program pursuant to Education Code section 8250(d). The documentation of exceptional needs shall include:

(a) A copy of the portion of the active individual family service plan (IFSP) or the individualized education program (IEP) that includes the information as specified in Education Code section 56026 and California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 3030 and 3031; and

(b) A statement signed by a legally qualified professional that:

(1) The child requires the special attention of adults in a child care setting; and

(2) Includes the name, address, license number, and telephone number of the legally qualified professional who is rendering the opinion.

Old Regulations

18089. Documentation of the Child's Special Needs

- (c) A statement that the child's special need cannot be met without the provision of child care and development services;
 - (d) The number of hours that the child care is needed each day;
 - (e) The name, address, telephone number and signature of the legally qualified professional who is rendering the opinion of the special need; and
 - (f) For children with exceptional needs, the basic data file shall also include information as specified in Education Code Section 56026 and Title 5 California Code of Regulations, Sections 3030 and 3031.
- Note: Authority cited: Sections 8261 and 8263, Education Code. Reference: Sections 8250, 8261, 8263 and 56026, Education Code.

18090. Documentation of Homelessness

If the basis of eligibility as specified in Education Code Section (8263(a)(1) is homelessness, the basic data file shall include documentation of homelessness. The documentation of homelessness shall include:

18100 Documentation and Determination of Family Size

(a) A parent shall provide the names of the parents and the names, gender and birthdates of the children identified in the family. This information shall be documented on a confidential application for child care and development services and used to determine family size. The parent shall provide supporting documentation regarding the number of children and parents in the family.

(1) The number of children shall be documented by providing at least one of the following documents, as applicable:

- (A) Birth certificates;
- (B) Court orders regarding child custody;
- (C) Adoption documents;
- (D) Records of Foster Care placements;
- (E) School or medical records;
- (F) County welfare department records; or
- (G) Other reliable documentation indicating the relationship of the child to the parent.

(2) When only one parent has signed the application and the information provided pursuant to subdivision (a)(1) indicates the child(ren) in the family has another parent whose name does not appear on the application, then the presence or absence of that parent shall be documented by providing any one of the following documents, as applicable.

(A) Records of marriage, divorce, domestic partnership or legal separation;

(B) Court-ordered child custody arrangements;

(C) Evidence that the parent signing the application is receiving child support payments from that person, has filed for child support with the appropriate local agency, or has executed documents with that agency declining to file for child support;

(D) Rental receipts or agreements, contracts, utility bills or other documents for the residence of the family indicating that the parent is the responsible party; or

(E) Any other documentation, excluding a self-declaration except as provided in subdivision (a)(3), to confirm the presence or absence of a parent of a child in the family.

Old Regulations

18100 Determination of Family Size; Exclusions

(b) When an adult living in the household is neither the parent of the child nor the spouse of the parent, the adult and the adult’s children if any, shall be excluded from the calculation of family size;

(c) When a child is living with adult(s) other than a natural or adoptive parent, the child shall be considered a family of one. In these cases, a need criteria specified in Education Code Section 8263(a)(2) must be met by the caretaker of the child.

18100 Documentation and Determination of Family Size

(3) If, due to the recent departure of a parent from the family, the remaining applicant parent cannot provide any documentation pursuant to subdivision (a)(2), the applicant parent may submit a self-declaration signed under penalty of perjury explaining the absence of that parent from the family. Within six months of applying or reporting this change in family size, the parent must provide documentation pursuant to subdivision (a)(2).

(b) If the information provided by the parent is insufficient, the contractor shall request any additional documentation necessary from (a) above to verify the family composition and family size.

(c) For income eligibility and family fee purposes, when a child and his or her siblings are living in a family that does not include their biological or adoptive parent, only the child and related siblings shall be counted to determine family size. In these cases, the adult(s) must meet a need criterion a specified in Education Code section 8263(a)(2).

(d) Upon the transfer of a family from CalWORKs Stage 1 to CalWORKs Stage 2 or Stage 3, the CalWORKs Stage 2 or Stage 3 contractor shall accept the CalWORKs Stage 1 agency’s determination of family size until the family is re-certified.
